

Results from the Dooly County School System Wellness Policy Survey

The results are in! A survey was conducted to see how people felt about the Dooly County School System Wellness Policy. The findings from the survey indicated that all the participants believed that all schools are in compliance with the wellness policy. Most of the participants agreed that the wellness policy compares to the model local school wellness polices. Lastly, they all agreed that progress is being made in attaining the goals of the local wellness policy.

"This institution is an equal opportunity provider."